Plagiarism is the substitution of other people's work for one's own including the unacknowledged use of somebody else's words or ideas.

I understand this definition of plagiarism; I have read the School's Policy on Plagiarism, and I state that this essay does not contain any plagiarised material. I have not copied any of it from anywhere or anyone else. I have acknowledged all the sources that I consulted when writing it and I have employed proper citation when using somebody else's words or ideas.
